Administrative Services

Every day, school district operations become more complex. Laws and mandates constantly change and school leaders need new solutions for today's business challenges. The AIU offers a variety of services to support school administrators.

DIVERSITY, EQUITY & INCLUSION (DEI)

DEI Specialized Presentations

Contact: Michael Jones, 724-825-1009 • michael.jones@aiu3.net

The Office of Diversity, Equity & Inclusion can provide curated presentations to meet the professional and knowledge development needs. Presentations can be presented to educators and/or students on subjects related to race/ethnicity, LGBTQ+, gender identity, disabilities, and/or other areas of concerns related to DEI.

District DEI Consultation

Contact: Michael Jones, 724-825-1009 • michael.jones@aiu3.net

In-person or virtual consultations are available to discuss needs and resources to increase representation, inclusion, and belonging of diverse groups. Policy and procedures can also be discussed.

Regional DEI Task Force

Contact: Michael Jones, 724-825-1009 • michael.jones@aiu3.net

The Office of Diversity, Equity & Inclusion's Regional DEI Task Force supports DEI efforts and initiatives throughout the region. The task force is comprised of leaders from school districts and the AIU.

EVALUATION, GRANTS & DATA

Grant Development Workshop

Contact: Sheila Bell, 412-394-5821 • sheila.bell@aiu3.net

Do you have a great program idea but are not sure how to fund it? Did you ever wonder what was involved in developing and submitting a grant proposal? If you answered yes to these questions, this workshop is for you! Offered by the AIU's Evaluation, Grants and Data team, this one-day interactive training will guide you through the process of grant development — from sourcing opportunities and ensuring that your concept is a good fit to justifying your program's need and learning how to write fundable applications. Bring grant opportunities and your ideas for practice and brainstorming with peers. Lunch is provided.

Grant Network

Contact: Sheila Bell, 412-394-5821 • sheila.bell@aiu3.net

Join the AIU Grant Network to receive free email notices of potential local, state, and national grant opportunities. The AIU's Grant Network provides email notices of grant opportunities. To join, register at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/GrantNetwork>.

Grant Writing & Management Services

Contact: Sheila Bell, 412-394-5821 • sheila.bell@aiu3.net

The AIU Evaluation, Grants and Data (EGD) team provides support and capacity building to organizations during the grant management cycle. Services include concept development and logic modeling; grant writing and proofreading support; needs assessment compilation; project evaluation plan development; and post-grant data collection, analysis, and reporting. Services and supports are tailored to the individual needs of each organization.

Program Evaluation Services

Contact: Sheila Bell, 412-394-5821 • sheila.bell@aiu3.net

The AIU Evaluation, Grants and Data (EGD) team provides industry-leading program evaluation services and supports to help your organization achieve its goals. Taking a customer service approach, EGD helps its clients measure the impact of what they do so they can make informed decisions about their programs. Individualized evaluation plans may include developing logic models and theories of change, creating surveys and other data collection tools, conducting focus groups, analyzing data, and producing customized data reports and infographics that meet client and stakeholder needs.

EXECUTIVE SUPPORT

Management Consultation

Contact: Robert Scherrer, Ed.D., 412-394-5979 • robert.scherrer@aiu3.net

The AIU assists districts in identifying and coordinating resources and services to provide support in school management, planning, and administration.

Superintendent Commission

Contact: Robert Scherrer, Ed.D., 412-394-5979 • robert.scherrer@aiu3.net

The AIU assists with scheduling superintendents and assistant superintendents for the oath of office.

Superintendents' Advisory Council

Contact: Robert Scherrer, Ed.D., 412-394-5979 • robert.scherrer@aiu3.net

The AIU hosts monthly meetings with superintendents on current federal, state, and local issues that impact school districts. The executive director provides updates from the Pennsylvania Department of Education (PDE) and other governmental entities as it relates to public education based upon attendance at monthly meetings with the secretary of education and PDE officials. In addition, AIU leadership and superintendents meet in teams based on specific categories designed to address regional education issues.

SuperSite

Contact: Robert Scherrer, Ed.D., 412-394-5979 • robert.scherrer@aiu3.net

The AIU hosts SuperSite, a web-based tool designed specifically for superintendents. It is a source of current and relevant information related to human resources, finance, legislative advocacy, emergency management, and other data made available upon request.

FINANCE & BUSINESS OPERATIONS

Act 1 Mailing Coordination

Contact: Kim Enz, 412-394-5784 • kimberly.enz@aiu3.net

The Taxpayer Relief Act, known as Act 1, was passed in 2006 to provide property tax relief to qualifying resident homeowners. All school districts must participate; the AIU coordinates the mailing to thousands of homes in Allegheny County.

Business Administrator Role-Alike Meetings

Contact: Joseph Lucarelli, 412-394-5813 • joseph.lucarelli@aiu3.net

The AIU conducts quarterly role-alike meetings for Allegheny County school district business administrators. The free sessions give school business leaders the opportunity to come together and discuss topics that impact district operations. The AIU's staff provides timely updates on local, state, and federal issues that affect budgets and offers information that saves time and money.

IDEA Subrecipient Monitoring

Contact: Anthony Nuccetelli, 412-394-5791 • anthony.nuccetelli@aiu3.net

The AIU is the Local Education Agency (LEA) for IDEA Part B, Section 611 Funds. The purpose of the program is to pass through IDEA funds to districts for their school-based special education programs. As the pass-through entity for federal IDEA funds, the AIU is required to monitor the activities of sub-recipients to ensure that federal awards are used for authorized purposes in compliance with laws, regulations, and the provisions of contracts or grant agreements. In addition, monitoring is also required to ensure that performance goals are achieved.

Joint Purchasing Program

Contact: Kim Enz, 412-394-5784 • kimberly.enz@aiu3.net

The Joint Purchasing Program facilitates the purchase of energy, fuel, and paper products at the lowest prices. The program assists participants by preparing specifications, advertising, analyzing bids, conducting bid openings, evaluating samples, recommending bid awards, and notifying bidders. Every year, the Joint Purchasing Program saves school districts millions of dollars in the purchase of electricity, natural gas, gasoline, and diesel fuel.

School-Based ACCESS Program

Contact: Kara Bonaroti, 412-394-4527 • kara.bonaroti@aiu3.net

The School-Based ACCESS Program allows school districts to earn partial reimbursement for health-related services provided to students who are eligible for medical assistance. The AIU's business staff helps school districts complete the reimbursement process by ensuring compliance and the proper submission of claim documentation. Although there are many variables that determine reimbursement, districts may be able to realize significant savings.

Shared Administrative Services

Contact: Joseph Lucarelli, 412-394-5813 • joseph.lucarelli@aiu3.net

Richard Marusic, 412-394-5718 • richard.marusic@aiu3.net

The AIU offers shared services for common school district administrative functions that enables school districts to gain efficiencies by strategically centralizing, consolidating, and standardizing non-classroom functions. These services include payroll processing, benefit processing, core human capital management, accounts payable, purchasing, and general ledger. Please contact us for more details.

Special Education Transportation Services

Contact: Deborah Janosko, 412-394-5771 • deborah.janosko@aiu3.net

The AIU can facilitate transportation services for children with special needs. The AIU contracts with school bus transportation companies to provide the service. Funding comes directly from a district's state subsidy. No invoicing occurs.

HUMAN RESOURCES & LABOR RELATIONS

BridgeUP

Contact: Avryle Schmitt, 412-394-5733 • avryle.schmitt@aiu3.net

In partnership with Point Park University and BloomBoard, the AIU helps paraprofessionals grow into certificated special education teachers. Designed just for school districts, these programs help working professionals complete their coursework while on the job. Paraeducators and other support staff receive the instruction, coaching, and classroom experience they need to grow into certificated teachers. Paraeducators must possess an associate's degree or 60 college credits.

District-Based Human Resources Services

Contact: Erin Koebel, 412-394-5957 • erin.koebel@aiu3.net

The AIU has a comprehensive group of experts within the human resources field who can support any school district with complex human resources functions. The services are customizable and scalable to fit the needs of any school district. In addition, the services can be offered on an annual, quarterly, or weekly basis.

Human Resources Audits

Contact: Erin Koebel, 412-394-5957 • erin.koebel@aiu3.net

The AIU's Human Resources Audit Committee uses a list of mandated regulations and best practices to audit the practices and procedures of school district human resources departments. The audit produces a roadmap to compliance with actionable steps and best practice recommendations.

Human Resources Director Role-Alike Meetings

Contact: Erin Koebel, 412-394-5957 • erin.koebel@aiu3.net

The AIU holds quarterly human resource director role-alike meetings for district administrators. Information on relevant topics impacting human resources in schools is presented and discussed.

Group Term Life Insurance Consortium

Contact: Janet Breiding, 412-394-5848 • janet.breiding@aiu3.net

The Group Term Life Insurance Consortium enables members to achieve the benefits of group purchasing of term life insurance. Membership is available to all Allegheny County public school districts and career and technical schools.

Job Description Development & Review

Contact: Erin Koebel, 412-394-5957 • erin.koebel@aiu3.net

Job descriptions need to be written and framed to ensure position requirements accurately articulate expectations of a job seeker or incumbent yet comply with employment laws. Our job description committee will analyze and review your organization's current job descriptions and generate an action plan to address any identified issues. Job descriptions will be revised where needed and reviewed by the committee for consistency and accuracy.

PAeducator.net

Contact: Avryle Schmitt, 412-394-5733 • avryle.schmitt@aiu3.net

Website: paeducator.net

PAeducator.net is an online clearinghouse for teachers and administrators interested in working in Pennsylvania. This service is free to applicants and simplifies the application process for participating school districts and other educational entities. Our applicant profiles contain all documents required to be hired within a public school entity in Pennsylvania. PAeducator.net simplifies the recruiting and hiring process, allowing employers to post positions and conduct focused searches.

SmartSTART/Guest Substitute Teacher Training

Contact: Avryle Schmitt, 412-394-5733 • avryle.schmitt@aiu3.net

The SmartSTART/Guest Substitute Teacher Training program bolsters school districts' ability to recruit and train day-to-day guest substitute teachers for grades K–12. The AIU partners with the Substitute Teaching Institute at Utah State University and provides initial training/orientation to the guest teacher candidate. Each candidate must hold a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university to be eligible for an emergency permit upon completion of the training.

Title IX Investigation Services

Contact: Erin Koebel, 412-394-5957 • erin.koebel@aiu3.net

The AIU's Human Resources team has certified Title IX investigators who can help districts to conduct investigations required by Title IX.

LEGISLATIVE SERVICES

Legislative Policy & Advocacy

Contact: Joseph Shaulis, Esq., 412-394-4521 • joseph.shaulis@aiu3.net

The Public School Code authorizes intermediate units to serve as a liaison between member school districts and the state and federal governments. Regular legislative and legal updates are provided to district superintendents and other school administrators. The AIU serves as an informational resource for policymakers and connects them with educational experts. The Legislative Policy & Advocacy team promotes opportunities for engagement with legislators, including the annual Allegheny County Legislative Forum on Education.

MARKETING & STRATEGIC COMMUNICATION SERVICES

Full Service Support

Contact: Sarah McCluan, 412-394-3472 • sarah.mccluan@aiu3.net

Districts are assigned a dedicated communication team to meet their needs year-round. Services vary depending on district need and include a communication specialist lead, graphic designer, supervisor, and other supports.

Public Relations Role-Alike Meetings

Contact: Sarah McCluan, 412-394-3472 • sarah.mccluan@aiu3.net

Monthly role-alike meetings are held for school public relations officers to discuss timely communications-related issues.

Special Projects

Contact: Sarah McCluan, 412-394-3472 • sarah.mccluan@aiu3.net

School districts enlist the AIU to carry out a variety of one-off special projects, including video production, recruitment campaigns, and communication audits.

Supplementary Support

Contact: Sarah McCluan, 412-394-3472 • sarah.mccluan@aiu3.net

Delegate one or more specific responsibilities to a dedicated communication specialist — freeing up time for internal staff to address more urgent matters. Our staff can also complement your district's in-house services with specialized expertise, such as graphic design or video production.

SAFETY & SECURITY

Emergency Operations Plan Development

Contact: Aaron Skrbin, 412-394-5933 • aaron.skrbin@aiu3.net • Twitter: @AIUSafetyandSecurity

Pennsylvania schools are required by law to have an emergency operations plan. By request, the AIU guides administrators in building a comprehensive emergency operations plan that takes a multi-hazard approach.

Incident Management Classes

Contact: Aaron Skrbin, 412-394-5933 • aaron.skrbin@aiu3.net • Twitter: @AIUSafetyandSecurity

In partnership with the Allegheny County Office of Emergency Services and Readiness & Emergency Management for Schools Technical Assistance (REMS TA) Center, the AIU offers a variety of school safety related training in virtual and in-person formats.

Mandated Threat Assessment Team Training & Refresher Training

Contact: Aaron Skrbin, 412-394-5933 • aaron.skrbin@aiu3.net • Twitter: @AIUSafetyandSecurity

Every K–12 public and charter school in Pennsylvania is mandated by law to have threat assessment teams in place. The AIU offers full-day training for new teams/team members at the Central Office several times each year. Upon request of the school district, the AIU can also provide on-site training, including a 90-minute team refresher training.

School Safety & Security Site Assessments

Contact: Aaron Skrbin, 412-394-5933 • aaron.skrbin@aiu3.net • Twitter: @AIUSafetyandSecurity

Pennsylvania schools are required by law to conduct safety and security assessments every three years. By request and as time permits, the director of safety & security conducts comprehensive site assessments and safety plan reviews.

School Resource Officer Trainings

Contact: Aaron Skrbin, 412-394-5933 • aaron.skrbin@aiu3.net • Twitter: @AIUSafetyandSecurity

By request, the AIU will work with the National Association of School Resource Officers to provide a variety of training programs for school resource officers, school administrators, and school police officers.

School Safety Role-Alike Meetings

Contact: Aaron Skrbin, 412-394-5933 • aaron.skrbin@aiu3.net • Twitter: @AIUSafetyandSecurity

The director of Safety & Security convenes weekly informal virtual meetings for school safety updates that also serve as a valuable forum for sharing information and networking. Quarterly meetings are conducted in a more formal setting with a focus on a particular topic and typically offer a directed training or guest speaker.

School Safety Role-Alike Listserve

Contact: Aaron Skrbin, 412-394-5933 • aaron.skrbin@aiu3.net • Twitter: @AIUSafetyandSecurity

The director of Safety & Security facilitates communication and collaboration between the school safety community through a self-subscribing/unsubscribing listserve.

To subscribe, visit <https://aiu3.simplelists.com>, enter your information, and select "AIU RoleAlike" from the drop-down menu. To ensure real-time delivery of time-sensitive announcements, do not select the "daily digest" option.

Training & Exercise Development

Contact: Aaron Skrbin, 412-394-5933 • aaron.skrbin@aiu3.net • Twitter: @AIUSafetyandSecurity

The director of Safety & Security works with schools and partner agencies to identify and meet training goals through targeted activities, such as emergency operations plan review; team and relationship building for school administrators and partner first-responder agencies; and tabletop exercises designed to test emergency plans, clarify roles and responsibilities, and connect with local first responders.

TECHNOLOGY SERVICES

Flexible Technician Services

Contact: Scott Kelly, 412-394-5772 • scott.kelly@aiu3.net

The AIU's Technology Services Department has staff technicians available for engagement on an intermittent basis to support vacancies, large projects, hardware repair, and troubleshooting end-point device support.

Google Certified Educator Training – Level 1 & Level 2

Contact: Jana Baxter, 412-394-4602 • jana.baxter@aiu3.net

Google Certified Educator Level 1: This is a three-day session designed for educators who “know how to use Google tools in the classroom,” and this certification proves proficiency. Hands-on coaching will expose educators to a variety of Google tools so they can successfully pass the Google Educator Level 1 certification.

Google Certified Educator Level 2: This is a three-day session designed for educators who are superusers and enthusiasts of Google tools in the classroom. Hands-on coaching will expose educators to a variety of Google tools to successfully pass the Google Educator Level 2 certification.

Integrating Technology into the Curriculum

Contact: Jana Baxter, 412-394-4602 • jana.baxter@aiu3.net

The AIU's staff can assist school districts with a variety of emerging instructional technologies. Services include consultation during the exploration and planning phase and training during the implementation phase. Focus areas are 1:1 teaching and learning, web-based and app-based learning tools, and promoting the 4Cs (communication, collaboration, critical thinking, and creativity) through using instructional technology. The staff is fluent with multiple platforms and certified to provide Apple, Google, and Nearpod professional development for teachers.

Media Coordinator Role-Alike Meetings

Contact: Jana Baxter, 412-394-4602 • jana.baxter@aiu3.net

The AIU holds quarterly media coordinator role-alike trainings for district media specialists/librarians. Information about technology integration in schools is presented and discussed.

Online Learning Professional Development

Contact: Jana Baxter, 412-394-4602 • jana.baxter@aiu3.net

The AIU staff provides training focused on the creation of courses using a learning management system, such as Blackboard, Google Classroom, Schoology, Canvas, and other systems used by districts. The focus will be either an asynchronous or a blended environment.

Regional Wide Area Network (RWAN)

Contact: Richard Platts, 412-394-5710 • richard.platts@aiu3.net

The Regional Wide Area Network (RWAN) is a fiber optic educational network comprising 41 school districts, two CTCs and the AIU. Members choose a 1 Gbps or 10 Gbps connection and upstream Internet connectivity. The RWAN provides access to the state's K–12 network (PAIUNET). In addition, students and teachers can connect to the Pittsburgh Supercomputing Center's backbone to Internet2 for direct routes to major content providers including Microsoft, Google, and others. The RWAN is governed by an elected set of technology services leaders from a cross-section of districts.

Special Education Data Collection & Reporting System

Contact: Danielle Farquhar, 412-394-7392 • danielle.farquhar@aiu3.net

The AIU is designated by the Pennsylvania Department of Education (PDE) to collect the special education data needed to meet state and federal reporting requirements. The aggregated data of the region is used to generate 32 reports required by PDE. This service is not only free to school districts, but also saves administrators time and effort.

Technology Assessments & Managed Services

Contact: Richard Platts, 412-394-5710 • richard.platts@aiu3.net

To help school districts operate in the most cost-efficient manner possible, the AIU's Technology Services staff provides a variety of services, including infrastructure assessments, managed services, virtual IT director, network administrator, help desk, technical support, PIMS administrator, and E-rate support. These services allow school districts to augment their staffing to stretch educational dollars.

Technology Coordinator Role-Alike Meetings

Contact: Richard Platts, 412-394-5710 • richard.platts@aiu3.net

The AIU holds monthly technology coordinator role-alike meetings that are designed to provide updates, best practices, and a forum for discussion for both new and experienced school district technology administrators. A variety of topics are discussed, including online learning, educational technologies, county-wide service networks, and other technology initiatives.

Wi-Fi Assessments

Contact: Scott Kelly, 412-394-5772 • scott.kelly@aiu3.net

The AIU's Technology Services department is available to conduct wireless design audits focusing on access point configuration and placement, using Ekahau, the IT industry's leading Wi-Fi tool for designing and validating wireless networks. The AIU's Ekahau-certified technicians are available for configuration design and analysis.

Family & Community Engagement

At the AIU, we work collaboratively with a variety of groups and organizations. We partner with school districts, private businesses, government entities and non-profit organizations to bring services and resources to students, children and families throughout the region. Through this work, we impact communities and help families become stronger.

EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION SERVICES

Early Head Start

Contact: Shannon McGee, 412-394-5880 • shannon.mcgee@aiu3.net

Early Head Start is a childhood development program for infants, toddlers, pregnant women and their families. AIU staff works with families to promote child development, help pregnant women access prenatal and postpartum care, support parents' efforts to fulfill their parental roles, and assist families as they move forward toward self-sufficiency. Classes and home-based services are available.

Head Start

Contact: Katie Elk, 412-394-5863 • kathleen.elk@aiu3.net

Head Start is a high-quality preschool program that is funded through federal and state funds and is offered at no cost to eligible participants. The goal of Head Start is to improve school readiness outcomes through a comprehensive services model for families typically at 100% of the federal poverty level. Classroom and in-home service models are available throughout Allegheny County and generally operate on a school-year calendar.

Hi5! Kindergarten Transition

Contact: Wendy Etheridge Smith, Ph.D., 412-394-5757 • wendy.smith@aiu3.net

Hi5! is a countywide effort to support kindergarten transition by connecting early childhood providers with the 43 school districts in Allegheny County. Hi5! serves as the meeting place for all school district staff engaged in early childhood programming, including kindergarten teachers, and supports districts with planning kindergarten registration activities while forging communication between programs. Hi5! assures that school districts have memoranda of understanding between early childhood entities.

Pre-K Counts

Contact: Katie Elk, 412-394-5863 • kathleen.elk@aiu3.net

Pre-K Counts is a high-quality preschool program funded by state funds and offered at no cost to eligible participants. The goal of Pre-K Counts is to improve school readiness outcomes for children whose families earn up to 300% of the federal poverty level. Providers are located in many communities throughout Allegheny County and generally operate on a school-year calendar.

FAMILY LITERACY, EDUCATION & SUPPORT

ADULT EDUCATION & SUPPORT

Allegheny County Jail Workforce Development & GED Preparation Program

Contact: Joe Tokar, 412-464-4061 • joseph.tokar@aiu3.net

The Allegheny County Jail Workforce Development & GED Preparation Program provides literacy and basic adult education classes for inmates within the jail facilities. The program staff offers classes in GED preparation and testing, computer literacy, and basic academic skills, as well as financial literacy and pre-apprenticeship test preparation.

Early Literacy Support Hubs Program

Contact: Lori Vollman, 412-394-5962 • lorene.vollman@aiu3.net

The Early Literacy Support Hubs integrates with the existing Parents as Teachers curriculum, utilized by family centers in Clairton, Highlands, McKeesport, and Steel Valley. To enhance the effectiveness of the program, we are providing additional offerings, such as a monthly book club, parent/child activity group centered on early childhood literacy, and quarterly family literacy events that engage both families and the community. Equipping parents with the knowledge and skills to support their children's emerging literacy skills, the Early Literacy Support Hub empowers families to become active partners in their children's education journey. As children develop essential literacy competencies during their formative years, they are better prepared to succeed academically and thrive in all aspects of life. Moreover, fostering a culture of lifelong learning and literacy within families and communities lays a solid foundation for future generations' academic achievement and overall well-being.

Family Centers

Contact: Lori Vollman, 412-394-5962 • lorene.vollman@aiu3.net

Family centers are community-based programs designed to provide families with resources and support. Families are given opportunities and experiences that enable them to become self-sufficient and nurturing parents. The AIU operates 10 family centers at community-based sites in Carnegie, Clairton, Duquesne, East Allegheny, Highlands, Lincoln Park, McKeesport, Steel Valley, and Sto-Rox as well as the Family and Immigrant Connections program, which is a home-visiting program with bilingual staff to support Latino families.

Family Literacy Classes

Contact: Clara Folino, 412-281-4494 • adulated@aiu3.net

Family literacy classes guide parents to develop their own literacy skills and work with their children on early learning activities. To attend these classes, you must be an adult, age 18 or older, and have a child who is eight (8) years old or younger. Additionally, adults seeking a GED can participate in classes and supports to achieve the credential. Please contact us if you have any questions.

Heather Moschetta, Ph.D., 412-394-4919 • heather.moschetta@aiu3.net

This three-day series is open to all teachers in grades 4–8 who have completed the first course, Text Dependent Analysis: Effective Instructional Practices. In this series, participants will deepen their understanding of the reading, thinking, and writing processes necessary for TDA success—examining student work and using the TDA Learning Progressions to make instructional decisions. TDA passages and prompts and other materials will be provided.

Thinking Through the Pencil

Contact: Heather Moschetta, Ph.D., 412-394-4919 • heather.moschetta@aiu3.net

This four-day workshop series is designed to build students' critical thinking skills through writing. Designed for practical application in grades 4–8 ELA classrooms, topics include teaching academic form, increasing the frequency of writing opportunities, providing effective and timely feedback, incorporating writing into reading, and incorporating grammar instruction into reading and writing.

Word Wizards

Contact: Heather Moschetta, Ph.D., 412-394-4919 • heather.moschetta@aiu3.net

Build your students into word wizards! This three-day series presents teachers in grades 3-12 with research and practical strategies to strengthen students' word knowledge, through both indirect vocabulary exposure and direct vocabulary instruction.

SOCIAL STUDIES

C3 Framework

Contact: Paul Cindric, Ed.D., 412-394-4940 • paul.cindric@aiu3.net

Cost: No Charge

This three-hour workshop guides social studies educators through the National Council for the Social Studies' research-based C3 (college, career, and civic life) Framework. C3 provides an inquiry arch of four dimensions and includes descriptive student performance indicators for the disciplines of social studies (geography, economics, history, and civics) for K–12 students.

Historical Thinking in the Middle Grades

Contact: Paul Cindric, Ed.D., 412-394-4940 • paul.cindric@aiu3.net

This three-day series provides middle school history teachers with practical experiences in using, teaching, and assessing historical thinking concepts. Utilizing primary and secondary sources, teachers will engage in inquiry-based techniques for the purpose of making history classes come alive for their students.

Social Studies Network

Contact: Paul Cindric, Ed.D., 412-394-4940 • paul.cindric@aiu3.net

The Social Studies Network provides support to districts and teachers in the areas of instructional strategies, integration of PA Core Standards literacy standards, and PA social studies content standards. Assistance is also provided in curriculum design as well as professional development in the social studies disciplines. In addition, a Social Studies Network series of professional development facilitates networking between social studies teachers and regional, national, and global institutions to advance the level of civic engagement and historical thinking among all learners.

TRAINING AND CONSULTATION (TAC)

Assistive Technology Supports

Contact: Kendra Bittner, 412-394-5872 • kendra.bittner@aiu3.net

Scott Dougherty, 412-394-1346 • scott.dougherty@aiu3.net

Assistive technology services include consulting with student teams; providing information needed for the testing or acquisition of devices; assisting teams in the selection, customization, application, retention, or replacement of devices; aiding teams in the integration of assistive technology into instruction and coordinated therapies; and providing training and technical assistance. Training specific to accessibility features within Word and Google Chrome is also available to increase implementation of these tools to assist students in accessing the general education curriculum.

Autism Support

Contact: Amanda Zimmer, 412-394-4624 • amanda.zimmer@aiu3.net

Marisa Esposito, 412-394-5751 • marisa.esposito@aiu3.net

Professional development and technical assistance are provided to AIU member school districts and programs to address instructional strategies for students with autism spectrum disorder. From large trainings to school-based team meetings, AIU-TaC consultants present research-based approaches to promote progress in academic, social, communication, and behavioral domains for students with ASD.

General IDEA Supports

Contact: Leanna Lawson, Ed.D., 412-394-5857 • leanna.lawson@aiu3.net

Professional development and technical assistance are available to support teams in the construction of defensible IEPs that are data driven, including IEP goal development, progress monitoring, positive behavior support plans, and crisis plans. Special education personnel may also receive training and support pertaining to education benefit review process and the preparation and follow-up to compliance monitoring activities.

Intensive Interagency Coordination

Contact: Leanna Lawson, Ed.D., 412-394-5857 • leanna.lawson@aiu3.net

Marisa Esposito, 412-394-5751 • marisa.esposito@aiu3.net

The interagency coordinator facilitates problem-solving teams in AIU member school districts and charter schools to assist in the design and delivery of coordinated services to individual school-age children and their families. Intensive interagency coordination is critical when a student does not have an appropriate placement or is at risk of losing an educational placement.

LETRS (Language Essentials for Teachers of Reading & Spelling) Professional Development, Third Edition

Contact: Lisa Yonek, Ed.D., 412-294-1370 • lisa.yonek@aiu3.net

Kate Stuckey, 412-394-5846 • katherine.stuckey@aiu3.net

LETRS Third Edition addresses four critical outcomes for effective literacy instruction: understanding the Science of Reading, converting research to practice, enhancing teacher effectiveness, and transforming instruction. By understanding the “why” behind science and evidence-based research, educators know how to help students as they learn to read. Members of the RAC/ TaC facilitation team will provide customized support at the district and classroom levels and determine actionable next steps before, during, and after participation in the LETRS Third Edition program.

Least Restrictive Environment/Inclusive Practices

Contact: Amanda Zimmer, 412-394-4624 • amanda.zimmer@aiu3.net
Kendra Bittner, 412-394-5872 • kendra.bittner@aiu3.net
Scott Dougherty, 412-394-1346 • scott.dougherty@aiu3.net

Professional development and technical assistance are provided to support school districts in implementing the Least Restrictive Environment (LRE) of IDEA and related case law. The focus is on assisting teachers and administrators to ensure that all students gain access to grade level content standards. Training in the alternate eligible content for ELA, math, science, and writing is also available. Additionally, professional development and implementation assistance with the Universal Design for Learning (UDL) can work to achieve firm goals and grade-level standards, and enable students to become expert learners when barriers are removed. Finally, teams may request facilitation of the Supplementary Aids and Services Toolkit. This toolkit and reflection practice is used to ensure fuller participation for students with disabilities in the general education setting.

Life Skills/Supporting Students with Complex Needs

Contact: Amanda Zimmer, 412-394-4624 amanda.zimmer@aiu3.net
Kendra Bittner, 412-394-5872 • kendra.bittner@aiu3.net
Marisa Esposito, 412-394-5751 • marisa.esposito@aiu3.net

Professional development and technical assistance are provided to educational teams who support students with complex needs. Professional development will be designed to meet the diverse learning needs of this student group in the areas of academics, behavior, and communication across various settings. Statewide assessment support in the PASA is also available. Consultations are customized to meet a variety of team and individual student needs.

Literacy & Writing Supports

Contact: Laura Miller, Ed.D., 412-294-1370 • laura.miller@aiu3.net
Kate Stuckey, 412-394-5846 • katherine.stuckey@aiu3.net

Professional development and technical assistance are provided to educators in the Science of Reading and writing. Outcomes include deepening professional knowledge of how literacy skills are attained, improved use of assessment data, and refining of practices to support students who struggle. Topics include foundational skill development in reading and writing, assessment administration and interpretation, planning and delivery of interventions, structured literacy and multisensory instruction, dyslexia, dysgraphia, and literacy supports for students with autism and complex needs.

Mathematics Supports (MTSS)

Contact: Shelly Burr, Ed.D., 412-394-5781 • shelly.burr@aiu3.net

Professional development and technical assistance are provided to support the implementation of a Multi-Tiered System of Supports in academics. Outcomes include deepening professional knowledge of how evidence-based instructional strategies and interventions can support all learners, but especially students who struggle in mathematics. Topics include assessment and intervention, Concrete-Representational-Abstract approach to teaching the four operations, fractions and decimals, schema-based instruction, and supporting students with dyscalculia and complex needs.

Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MTSS)/ Response to Instruction & Intervention (RTII)

CMU CS Academy

Contact: Tyler Samstag, 412-394-5829 • tyler.samstag@aiu3.net
Linda Muller, 412-394-5761 • linda.muller@aiu3.net

Carnegie Mellon University's Computer Science (CS) Academy is a novel, world-class, online, interactive high school computer science curriculum that is entirely free. The AIU offers two-day workshops to familiarize secondary teachers to CS Academy's curriculum and prepare them to teach computer science in an engaging and accessible manner. Free workshops are hosted each year through transformED or can be tailored to the needs of specific districts.

Educator Workshops

Contact: Tyler Samstag, 412-394-5829 • tyler.samstag@aiu3.net

Educator workshops are radically relevant professional learning experiences for educators in Western Pennsylvania. transformED educator workshops emphasize hands-on practice with new ideas, skills, and tools, together with peer-to-peer support that helps teachers return to their classroom confident and ready to inspire and support their students. Workshops focus on a variety of topics that include robotics, virtual and augmented reality, digital citizenship, game design, and physical computing.

Human-Centered Design Consultation

Contact: Tyler Samstag, 412-394-5829 • tyler.samstag@aiu3.net

Human-centered design is an iterative approach to problem solving that intentionally seeks out people with different perspectives, knowledge, skills, and experience and has them work together to create a practical solution for a real-world problem. To support districts in developing human-centered solutions to school-based challenges and problems, transformED offers tailored consultation in human-centered design. Facilitators will support district teams in framing challenges, seeking input from diverse stakeholders, and brainstorming and prototyping innovative, out-of-the-box solutions.

Innovation Consulting

Contact: Tyler Samstag, 412-394-5829 • tyler.samstag@aiu3.net

In an effort to infuse science, technology, engineering, the arts, and mathematics (STEAM) and learning innovation into school districts' curricula, transformED team members are available for consulting on strategic plans, curriculum design, technology integration, human-centered design, and project-based learning.

STEAM Lending Library

Contact: Tyler Samstag, 412-394-5829 • tyler.samstag@aiu3.net

The AIU STEAM Lending Library allows districts to put the latest education technology to the test in their classrooms at no cost. Supported by free training, district leaders borrow equipment to find out what works best for their students in a single building or districtwide. For schools, the lending library is a way to infuse more technology than budgets allow, or simply to "try before you buy." Equipment includes robotics kits like the Hummingbird and Finch, computational thinking tools like Bee-Bots and Sphero Robots, and exploratory tools like Osmo coding kits and Arduino boards.

STEAM Teacher & Coordinator Role-Alike Meetings

Contact: Tyler Samstag, 412-394-5829 • tyler.samstag@aiu3.net

This role-alike group is designed for regional STEM/STEAM teachers and coordinators to network, share content, and build skills. Some network with other educators to learn how they are integrating STEAM, maker education, and coding in their curriculum.

transformED

Contact: Tyler Samstag, 412-394-5829 • tyler.samstag@aiu3.net • Twitter: @transformED_aiu transformED connects educators with the professional learning, technology access, peer networks, and grant funding they need to start, scale, and sustain transformational change. By staying ahead of the curve, transformED helps districts prepare for changes coming their way and make a plan to integrate new instructional practices and technologies. By meeting educators where they are, transformED offers many points of entry to the broader movement for innovation in education.

Brian Welles, 412-394-5732 • brian.welles@aiu3.net

Transition consultants provide coordinated transition services for youth with special needs, ages 14–21, with the objective of helping students realize their post-secondary outcomes for further education, employment, and independent living in the community.

Travel Services

Contact: Brian Welles, 412-394-5732 • brian.welles@aiu3.net

Travel instruction is individualized instruction that teaches students with disabilities (other than blindness or visual impairment) the skills necessary to travel safely and efficiently within their home, school, place of employment, and community.

PRESCHOOL SERVICES

Preschool Early Intervention Services

Contact: Contact: Carrie Frohnapfel, 412-394-4593 • carrie.frohnapfel@aiu3.net

The purpose of PEI is to discover eligible preschoolers, ages three through five years, who have developmental delays and/or disabilities. The PEI program screens children and evaluates those who qualify for intervening services. The PEI program supports the provision of special education services until the child is eligible and enrolls in school-aged programming.

PUPIL SERVICES

Board Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA)

Contact: Brian Welles, 412-394-5732 • brian.welles@aiu3.net

BCBAs provide direct services including observations and interviews resulting in the development of Functional Behavioral Assessments (FBA) and Positive Behavior Support Plans (PBSP). The services include related consultation and staff training specific to the ongoing maintenance of the support plans. As outlined by the Behavioral Analyst Certification Board, the AIU BCBAs can provide regular supervision for district-based Registered Behavior Technicians (RBT) staff.

BrainSTEPS Professional Development Services

Contact: Jamie Moder, 412-394-5822 • jamie.moder@aiu3.net

BrainSTEPS (Strategies Teaching Educators, Parents and Students) consultation provides training and technical assistance with all matters needed to support students with a brain injury. Consultation services include identification, school re-entry planning, IEP/504 Plan development, intervention selection and implementation, long-term monitoring of students, and other issues professionals face in supporting students with brain injury.

Bullying Prevention Program

Contact: Brian Welles, 412-394-5732 • brian.welles@aiu3.net

The AIU is available to train district staff in the Olweus Bullying Prevention Program, a research-based, comprehensive approach to address bullying behavior. The program is focused on long-term change that creates a safe and positive school climate. The program is evidence-based and appropriate for use in elementary, middle, junior high, and high schools.

Crisis Response Team

Contact: Brian Welles, 412-877-9682 • brian.welles@aiu3.net

Licensed social workers and certified school psychologists who have training and experience in grief counseling provide short-term support and resources for LEAs that experience the tragic loss of a student, staff, or community member. Licensed social workers and certified school psychologists can provide support for other mental health providers who work within a district or lead the process. In addition, the department has resources including templated letters administrators can customize and use when communicating with families and community members in their catchments.

Psychological Services

Contact: Brian Welles, 412-394-5732 • brian.welles@aiu3.net

Pennsylvania-certified school psychologists provide psychological assessments and evaluations related to ability, achievement, and emotional status for students 3–21 years of age. Psychologists also provide functional behavioral assessments, counseling services, and crisis intervention.

Social Work Services

Contact: Brian Welles, 412-394-5732 • brian.welles@aiu3.net

Pennsylvania-licensed social workers act as a link among school, home, and community resources. In addition, social workers specialize in educational group work with students on topics such as grief, social skills, anger management, and problem solving.

Suicide Prevention Training

Contact: Brian Welles, 412-394-5732 • brian.welles@aiu3.net

AIU suicide prevention training is designed to help reduce suicide risks in students and increase their help-seeking behaviors. Students in grades 6–12 learn how to recognize the signs and symptoms of depression and other higher-risk mental illnesses. The training equips school faculty to better identify at-risk teens. The training protocol is grounded on the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention's More Than Sad model.

SPECIAL EDUCATION SCHOOL-BASED PROGRAMS

Autistic Support

See school contacts above for more information.

The AIU's school-based autistic support services provide specially designed instruction to students who need a program that is highly structured with a special emphasis on communication and behavior. The program focuses on a strong speech and language component, which encourages the development of independence and self-sufficiency in the areas of community-based instruction skills, functional skills, vocational skills and leisure and social skills.

Emotional Support

See school contacts above for more information.

The AIU's school-based emotional support services provide a structured behaviorally and emotionally enhanced approach to students who demonstrate a pattern of behaviors that may include poor attendance, aggression toward others, withdrawal, poor peer/adult relationships and who may have court involvement. Some students may have diagnosed emotional disorders that need to be supported through coping strategies and self-monitoring. The primary goal of the program is to teach students the appropriate behaviors necessary to return to their home school.

Learning Support

See school contacts above for more information.

The AIU's school-based learning support services provide standards-based, specially designed instruction to students who require modifications and adaptations to the general education curriculum. Additionally, students are provided support in learning, behavioral and social skills.

Life Skills Support

See school contacts above for more information..

The AIU's school-based life skills support services provide standard-aligned specially designed instruction to students who require significant modifications and adaptations to the general education curriculum. Additionally, students are provided support in learning, behavioral and social skills.

Multi-Disabilities Support

See school contacts on page 26 for more information.

The AIU's school-based multi-disabilities support services provide specially designed instruction to students who have two or more disabilities that may include complex medical needs requiring the integration of related services, including OT/PT, vision, hearing and/or speech and language support. Students may also require support in the development of their personal and social skills.

Physical Support

See school contacts on page 26 for more information.

The AIU's school-based physical support services provide specially designed instruction for students who have severe physical/intellectual disabilities such that program modifications are needed to meet physical and cognitive needs while promoting competence and independence.

PRIDE Program

See school contacts on page 26 for more information.

PRIDE is a vocationally oriented transition program for students ages 18–21 with mild to moderate special needs. PRIDE focuses on Personal maintenance, Recreation and leisure opportunities, Independence in the community, Domestic living skills and Employment and training opportunities. The program provides an intense training experience through community-based opportunities.

Vocational Programs

See school contacts on page 26 for more information.

The AIU offers vocationally oriented programs where students learn pre-vocational skills that focus on specific areas of employment. Through instruction in our mechanical and industrial workshops, on-site warehouses, and vocational-based classrooms, students learn specific employment skills across a wide variety of school and community based settings. Programs vary by school. Contact the school principal for more information.

BLIND/VISUALLY IMPAIRED SUPPORT PROGRAM

Audiology

Contact: Jeanine Esch, 412-394-4538 • jeanine.esch@aiu3.net

Jennifer Piring, 412-394-4630 • jennifer.piring@aiu3.net

Licensed educational audiologists provide consultation and recommendations for educational accommodations to maximize auditory access for students in the classroom. These professionals provide educationally relevant assessments of student auditory functioning, hearing and listening levels. In addition, they evaluate, fit and monitor school-provided individual Hearing Assistive Technology (HAT) as prescribed by Pennsylvania State Licensure in Audiology.

Communication Access Services for Students with Hearing Loss

Contact: Jennifer Purring, 412-394-4630 • jennifer.purring@aiu3.net

Communication Access Services for students who are deaf or hard of hearing are available to school districts in Allegheny County. These services include educational sign language interpreters, communication support specialists and oral transliterators. Qualified service providers offer access to the educational curriculum and environment unique to the student's primary mode of communication (sign language, speech reading or print). State-registered interpreters are also available on an hourly basis for adults who are deaf or hard of hearing to enable their participation in district meetings and events in compliance with ADA regulations and Pennsylvania Act 57.

Deaf-Blind Resource Team

Contact: Jeanine Esch, 412-394-4538 • jeanine.esch@aiu3.net

The Deaf-Blind Resource Team (DBRT) provides technical assistance to IEP teams to better support students who are deaf-blind. Through a collaborative model, the DBRT provides training, professional development and resources for multidisciplinary teams so they may meet the unique needs of learners with deaf-blindness. Members of the DBRT bring their collective skills, abilities and expertise from a wide range of disciplines.

Teachers of the Deaf & Hard of Hearing

Contact: Jeanine Esch, 412-394-4538 • jeanine.esch@aiu3.net

Jennifer Purring, 412-394-4630 • jennifer.purring@aiu3.net

The Deaf/Hard of Hearing Support Program provides specially designed instruction to students who exhibit a mild to profound hearing loss that interferes with the development of language and communication and impacts their ability to achieve educational potential. Certified teachers of the deaf/hard of hearing provide instruction and support for students in developing auditory, language, speech reading, literacy and self-advocacy skills as well as academic support in an inclusive educational program. The goal of this program is to effectively educate students with hearing loss, to the greatest extent possible, in regular education environments.

OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY/PHYSICAL THERAPY (OT/PT) SUPPORT PROGRAM

Occupational Therapy

Contact: Holly McElhinny, 412-394-5503 • holly.mcelhinny@aiu3.net

Occupational therapists and assistants are part of the educational team within the school setting. Therapists work with students to develop their fine-motor, visual-motor and sensory processing skills through direct intervention and collaboration with school personnel and by recommending strategies and modifications within the school environment.

Physical Therapy

Contact: Holly McElhinny, 412-394-5503 • holly.mcelhinny@aiu3.net

Physical therapists and assistants are part of the educational team within the school setting. Therapists work with students to develop their gross-motor skills, mobility and physical accessibility through direct intervention and collaboration with school personnel. Physical therapists also recommend strategies and modifications within the school environment.

Supervision & Consultation

Contact: Holly McElhinny, 412-394-5503 • holly.mcelhinny@aiu3.net

Mary Grassi, 412-394-5479 • mary.grassi@aiu3.net

The AIU's director and supervisor of occupational and physical therapy services provide support and oversight of AIU therapists delivering the related services within the school setting. Additional services include expert consultation, administrative support, assessments and recommendations regarding potential legal issues, and professional development for school staff.

SPEECH/LANGUAGE IMPAIRED SUPPORT PROGRAM

Auditory Processing Disorders (APD) Evaluation Team

Contact: Thomas Rea, 412-394-5826 • thomas.rea@aiu3.net

Auditory processing is the ability to accurately recognize and interpret the spoken word or auditory signal and demonstrate comprehension by providing an appropriate and timely response. The APD Evaluation Team's assessment includes an evaluation of records, testing, student observations, a parent interview and a speech and language evaluation. The outcomes of the assessment can include adaptations to the educational environment and consultation services to the team.

Diagnostic Consultation

Contact: Thomas Rea, 412-394-5826 • thomas.rea@aiu3.net

AIU speech language pathologists offer diagnostic and therapeutic expert consultation in areas of speech/language concerns. Speech and language diagnosticians are available to provide assessments and issue a report for students with speech and language impairments when an evaluation independent of the school district is requested. The diagnosticians can also be requested by school districts to offer second opinions on difficult cases.

Feeding & Swallowing Technical Support Team

Contact: Thomas Rea, 412-394-5826 • thomas.rea@aiu3.net

When children are unable to eat due to physical or behavioral conditions, serious health problems can result. The Feeding & Swallowing Team can provide trainings, treatment and consultative services for students K–21 years of age throughout Allegheny County.

Primary Expressions K-1 Classrooms

Contact: Thomas Rea, 412-394-5826 • thomas.rea@aiu3.net

The Primary Expressions K-1 classrooms provide language-intensive services to students with a primary diagnosis of speech/language impairment. The classrooms are small instructional settings led by a Speech Language Pathologist (SLP) who has passed the PRAXIS examination for general knowledge and supported by a full-time paraprofessional to assist in the classroom. In addition, an itinerant SLP provides intensive individual pull-out, small group and push-in classroom speech therapy as needed. Students who attend these settings participate in the regular education curriculum of the host school and have access to school-based activities.

Professional Development in Speech/Language Therapy

Contact: Thomas Rea, 412-394-5826 • thomas.rea@aiu3.net

Allegheny County SLPs have the option of participating in professional development by the AIU Speech Department to earn ASHA credit. The Speech Department also customizes training to meet the needs of districts.

Speech/Language Impaired Support Program

Contact: Thomas Rea, 412-394-5826 • thomas.rea@aiu3.net

Speech language pathologists provide specially designed instruction to students whose impairment of language, voice, fluency or articulation is present to such a degree that academic achievement is affected and the condition is significantly handicapping to the student.

Supervision of Clinical Fellowship Year

Contact: Eileen Cirelli, 412-394-5823 • eileen.cirelli@aiu3.net

The AIU Speech Department offers supervision of speech language pathologists seeking the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA) Certificate of Clinical Competence (CCC). Supervision includes three hours of direct observation and three hours of indirect observation per month.

Student Programs

At the AIU, we believe that learning is a life-long activity. Not all learning takes place in a traditional classroom – learning can happen anywhere. At the AIU, we meet students where they are, and support them as they reach towards their goals.

ACADEMIC EVENTS & GIFTED EDUCATION

Academic Events

Contact: Amy Davis McShane, 412-394-4193 • amy.mcshane@aiu3.net

The AIU provides various academic competitions for elementary and secondary students. Events that are held on a yearly basis include the History Bowl (with Heinz History Center), CalcuSolve and Children’s Choice Awards. Students have the opportunity to build upon their classroom experiences and see how their learning fits into the real world.

Career Connections

Contact: Amy Davis McShane, 412-394-4193 • amy.mcshane@aiu3.net

Cost: $100 registration fee

Invoice Frequency: Due upon application

Career Connections offers students in grades 9–12 the opportunity to explore a career in programs that consist of learning experiences that span one to four days. Students meet and work with professionals who share their experience, expertise and enthusiasm for what they do for a living. The programs provide a chance for students to make connections with organizations and people who can help them as they pursue their career choices. A registration fee of $100 is due at time of application. This fee is refunded if a student is not accepted into their choice of program.

Early Childhood Education Services

See page 9 for more information.

The AIU’s early childhood education programs are designed to teach children younger than five-years-old the skills they need to succeed in kindergarten.

Gifted Education

Contact: Amy Davis McShane, 412-394-4193 • amy.mcshane@aiu3.net

Cost: No charge

Offered programs include gifted boot camps and gifted networking meetings. Offerings vary per year. Services also include assistance to schools in relation to gifted education regulations and updates.

ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE (ESL)

Curriculum Review Process

Contact: Kelly Noyes, Ed.D., 412-394-5926 • kelly.noyes@aiu3.net

In the curriculum review process, staff suggest new scopes and sequences to parallel a district curriculum plan. In this process, districts may choose to focus on the alignment of ESL curriculum and instruction to state standards—or on making content area curriculum accessible to English language learners in the district.

Direct Instruction Model

Contact: Kelly Noyes, Ed.D., 412-394-5926 • kelly.noyes@aiu3.net

The K–12 English as a Second Language (ESL) program provides standards aligned with English language development instruction to students who come to us from all over the world. Students are provided with direct daily instruction in English with research-based curriculum specifically designed for the language acquisition process. All teachers are specifically trained and certified to provide this core content instruction.

English as a Second Language (ESL) Program Specialist Certification Program

Contact: Charlene Byrd, 412-394-3637 • charlene.byrd@aiu3.net

Earn your ESL Program Specialist certification in less than a year with the AIU's 18-credit blended program that includes online classwork, live class meetings via Zoom and field experience. Courses are taught by ESL professionals currently working in the field and supervised by the ESL program director.

New Teacher Induction Program

Contact: Dana Dervin, 412-394-5948 • dana.dervin@aiu3.net

Cost: $1,000 per teacher

Invoice Frequency: All ESL services are billed four times per year with all services combined

Non-contracting districts can elect to send their newly-hired ESL teachers to a five-month ESL New Teacher Induction Program. The ESL New Teacher Induction is a mentoring program in which teachers learn about ESL-specific laws, regulations and assessments. This training is a human resources investment that encourages student success.

Professional Development

Contact: Kelly Noyes, Ed.D., 412-394-5926 • kelly.noyes@aiu3.net

Cost: $500 half day/$1,000 full day

Invoice Frequency: All ESL services are billed four times per year with all services combined.

AIU ESL professional development sessions are designed to align with the district's strategic plan and local initiatives. AIU ESL administrators facilitate each session and cover topics such as best practices in the education of English learners, PDE updates and sustainability requirements.

State Monitoring, Program Monitoring & Evaluation

Contact: Kelly Noyes, Ed.D., 412-394-5926 • kelly.noyes@aiu3.net

Cost: $500.00 half day/$1,000 full day

Invoice Frequency: All ESL services are billed four times per year with all services combined.

The AIU ESL program provides assistance to districts preparing for state monitoring. All program compliance issues are reviewed with districts to assure that the district meets or exceeds the state's criteria.

Student Evaluations & Proficiency Testing

Contact: Charlene Byrd, 412-394-3637 • charlene.byrd@aiu3.net

Cost: $220 per evaluation

Invoice Frequency: All ESL services are billed four times per year with all services combined.

The K-12 ESL Program provides individual student evaluations using the WIDA screener for initial screening and placement. The test is also used for the administration of the state-mandated ACCESS for English Language Learners language proficiency assessment administered yearly in Pennsylvania.

Student Exiting/Monitoring Process

Contact: Charlene Byrd, 412-394-363 • charlene.byrd@aiu3.net

Cost: $125 per hour

Invoice Frequency: All ESL services are billed four times per year with all services combined.

This service facilitates the paperwork and compliance checks for students who have exited an ESL instructional program for two academic years.

Supervisor Services

Contact: Kelly Noyes, Ed.D., 412-394-5926 • kelly.noyes@aiu3.net

School districts operating their own ESL programs may contract for supervisory services. The ESL Program tailors its services to meet school district needs, and takes into consideration the extent of services required and the amount of time a school district may need supervision.

NON-PUBLIC SCHOOLS PROGRAM

Non-Public Schools Program (NPSP)

Contact: Kelly Noyes, Ed.D., 412-394-5926 • kelly.noyes@aiu3.net

The Non-Public Schools Program provides high-quality auxiliary Act 89 services for students attending K–12 non-public schools. The mission of the NPSP is to provide support, resources, consultation, and solutions to students, schools, and families so non-public school students have every opportunity to maximize their academic potential.

Title I Non-Public Schools Program

Contact: Joe Pisciotta, 412-394-4194 • joe.pisciotta@aiu3.net

The AIU Non-Public Schools Program offers comprehensive Title I services. School districts may contract with the AIU to provide Title I non-public school services that meet all federal requirements.

Title II-A Non-Public Schools Program

Contact: Joe Pisciotta, 412-394-4194 • joe.pisciotta@aiu3.net

Title II-A professional development services are offered to non-public schools located within AIU's service area. Funding is generated at the federal level and then managed by the AIU on behalf of school districts. Non-public school staff and administrators may contact the AIU to utilize funding for professional development needs that align with federal requirements.

SCHOOL-AGE SUPPLEMENTAL PROGRAMS & SERVICES

See page 11 for more information.

The AIU's supplemental student programs include alternative education, restorative practices, and services for homeless youth.

SPECIAL EDUCATION SCHOOL-BASED PROGRAMS

See page 26 for contact information.

The AIU offers a variety of unique, child-focused special education services for students with special needs. Our caring staff of qualified teachers and therapists foster students' success by tailoring services to meet each student's individualized needs. We serve students ages 5–21 with a variety of complex needs.

WATERFRONT LEARNING

Contact: Jill Manczka, 412-394-1378 • jill.manczka@aiu3.net

Waterfront Learning provides affordable K–12 virtual and hybrid educational options for school districts. Implementation is designed to meet the diverse needs of educational entities by providing full-time and part-time services to personalize learning pathways for all students. Secondary academics focus on core content, comprehensive world languages, STEM, advanced placement, dual credit, credit recovery, Keystone remediation, and career readiness. The K–6 elementary program provides core, elective language options and gifted/talented course offerings. Districts also contract for curriculum expansion, supplemental academic support products, intervention tools, participation of students with special needs, alternative education environments, hardware/internet allocation, hybrid learning planning, and professional development services.
